VOICE OF THE CUSTOMER

“It’ll help us grow because [the time] to deploy is [reduced], [and] your time to market is [reduced] because I’m not spending time researching every library from [the] open internet. It’s a central version. That level of organizational ability within a tool is good to have.”

Director of DevOps and enterprise engineering and enablement, health insurance

“From an organization that runs nearly 24/7 and needs high degrees of resiliency, [the JFrog Software Supply Chain Platform] hits all the marks for what enterprises require for this domain space.”

Head of ALM tools and platforms, financial services
